

Kane County is seeking proposals from persons interested in the purchase and removal of the Quonset style building at the Carrol Arena in Orderville, Utah. Purchaser must disassemble and remove the building prior to May 20, 2012 including the concrete slab on which the building currently rests. Interested persons must submit a sealed bid to the Kane County Clerks office by 12 PM (noon), Monday, April 2, 2012. Bids will be opened and read aloud in the Kane County Municipal Building Authority meeting on April 2, 2012. Please direct questions to Commissioner Doug Heaton 435-691-9500, dheaton@kane.utah.gov . Prospective bidders should register at the clerks office with names, phone numbers and email addresses in order that any modifications to the bid documents can be forwarded to the prospective bidders.

Late bids will not be considered.

Bids must be sealed and may be mailed or hand delivered to the Kane County Clerk, 76 N Main Street, Kanab, Utah 84741.

The Owner reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive any irregularity therein.