

Request for Proposals for North County Events Center

Kane County is requesting proposals from qualified contractors for erection of a prefabricated metal building with 4" wall insulation and 10" insulation including the Sealed "N" Safe thermal block for the roof portion, and an attached shed that will serve as the new Kane County Events Center in Orderville, Utah. Included in the construction are a concrete retaining wall which serves as foundation for one side of the building, concrete foundation and floor, and erection of the building. Excluded from this bid are the interior walls, plumbing, electrical and mechanical. They will be added later. Bonding will be required including a bid bond at the time of bid. Successful bidder must produce performance bonds.

Plans and specifications for the building can be obtained at the Kane County Clerk's office located at 76 N. Main Street in Kanab, Utah with a $100.00 deposit which is fully refundable with return of the plans, or may be viewed online at the Kane County website at www.kane.utah.gov/MBA forms/downloads. Bids will be opened and read aloud in the Kane County Municipal Building Authority meeting on Apr 2, 2012. Proposals must be received in the Kane County Clerk's office by 12 noon on Apr. 2, 2012. Please direct questions to Commissioner Doug Heaton 435-691-9500, dheaton@kane.utah.gov. All bidders should register at the clerk's office with contact information in order that any addendum or modifications to the bid documents can be forwarded to the prospective bidders. Bids not including the noticed addendum will be disqualified.

Late bids will not be considered.

Bids must be sealed and may be mailed or hand delivered to the Kane County Clerk, 76 N Main Street, Kanab, Utah 84741.

The Owner reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive any irregularity therein.
