Standards of Review for an Appeal Application:

1. Appeal Authority shall hear and review all Appeal Applications “de novo” (anew), including the review of all factual matters. Appeal Authority shall consider the materials presented originally before the decision maker and only such other information as Appeal Authority may deem relevant.
2. The Appeal Authority shall determine the correctness of a decision in its interpretation and application of all Land Use Ordinances.
3. Only those decisions in which a Land Use Authority has applied the requirements of the Land Use Ordinance to a particular application, person, or parcel may be appealed to the Appeal Authority.
4. The Appeal Application shall not be used to waive, modify, or amend any requirement, provision, or term of any Land Use Ordinance, except as may be appropriate in the case of a variance.
5. The Appeal Applicant/Owner has the burden of proving that the Land Use Authority erred.
6. Appeal Applicants/Owners have the right to be represented by an attorney, architect or other professional.
7. All supporting documentary evidence should, where possible, be provided to the Appeal Authority ten (10) days in advance of the hearing.
8. Additional review standards for an Appeal Application are provided by Section 9-3-1-12 of the Kane County Land Use Ordinance and 17-27a-(508-509.5) of the Utah State Code.
